

Jeffrey G. Nicholson, PhD, PA-C, M.Ed., MPAS, DFAAPA

Dr. Nicholson has been a clinically active PA for 30 years and is former Program Director of the University of Wisconsin-Madison PA Program. He is a published researcher on the malpractice incidence and risk management of physician assistants and since 2007 has operated a medico-legal consulting firm providing PA, NP and RN expert testimony on standards of care in all medical specialties nationwide (PA Experts Network). He is and has been several times President of the Academy of PAs in Legal Medicine, was a founding board member and director of the Hillside Clinic, a free mission Clinic in Belize and has operated his own low-cost family practice clinic in Milwaukee. He holds advanced degrees from Boston College (BS), Harvard University (M.Ed.), the University of Nebraska (MPAS) and the University of Wisconsin (BS, PhD). He has been twice president and a 20-year board member of the Wisconsin Academy of Physician Assistants, has been on the Membership Commission of the AAPA, and has testified personally in hundreds of alleged PA malpractice cases.